errors at New Haven Saturday, no ground was found for the writ of error and decision was rendered in favor of the proponents of the motion, and Mr. Schwartz was ordered to vacate the theatre 10 days after the filing of a penal bond, of $4,500 by the proponents of the motion. John L. Hall was in this city Thursday morning and the bond will be filed today (Friday) and Mr. Schwartz must vacate on Monday, Feb. 14th. Justice Beach's decision was in part as follows: he Blue Line Jitney dance at Andover Wednesday night was some wild time as a deputy sheriff of Tolland county can vouch for if you happen to ask him about it. It seems that the dance was scheduled as an invitation dance, but many couples not invited attended, and late in the night after the flow of "happy" Ilquid had loosened up the good spirits of the dancers the noise increased. Neighbor's disturted, called for a deputy sheriff and this man entered the hall, strode to the platform of the hall, assumed a poise, and displayed his badge. "I'm the deputy sheriff of Tolland county," he said, "and you've got just fifteen minutes to get out of this hall." Then, the story runs, the official pulled out his gun to add to the weight of his argument. A bystander, who did not believe in signs, knocked the gun from his hands and the party adjourned to the "ae. After a merry time one fellow was locked up in a nearby building, but made his defendants in error during pendency of the writ of error, in the above entitled case in accordance with Section 5550 of the general statutes, a hearing was held before me Saturday, Jan. 29, 1921, at the conference room of the supreme court of errors, court house, New Haven. It appears to me on due consideration that no reasonable or probable cause exists for allowance of such writ of error and therefore it is ordered that the levy of execution on the judgment on which such therefore it is ordered that the levy of execution on the judgment on which such writ is brought shall not be further suspended by reason of the pendency of the writ any longer than 10 days after the filing with the clerk of said court (Windham county) of a penal bond executed by the defendants in error to the plainful in the sum of $4,500 with some surety company authorized to do business in the state as surety conditioned to answer all and the party adjourned to the one. After a merry time one fellow was locked up in a nearby building, but made his escape by breaking a glass from a handy window. The official called for help from hearby towns but to no avail and the dancers wended their way komeward. Whether arrests will follow has not been announced but the afory is causing no little mirth to those who witnessed the affair.
